THE 25TH REUNION FORM AT ANNIVERSARY

To return to St. Paul's on the occasion of your 25th Anniversary is an occasion that fills one with so many emotions that it is difficult to describe them. This is especially so in the case of your reporter, who has been unfortunate in not being able to attend any Anniversary since his graduation.

The usual special train left Grand Central Terminal, New York, on Tuesday, June 4th, arriving in Concord an hour or so ahead of time. There were many who blamed the railroad for this, but others were thankful, as it gave us more time to devote to visiting the scenes of boyhood.

We proceeded to the world famous Eagle House for breakfast. Everything in the hotel seemed to greet you and a flood of memories returned, recalling the times when your parents came to see you and asked you “in town” for a meal.

After breakfast we arrived at the Old Farm in such a short space of time that we hardly knew we were there. There is quite a difference between horse and motor transportation. Mr. Brinley, in his gracious way, greeted us and advised us that we were to be quartered in the “Pest House.” The Form of 1904 was fortunate in having twelve of its members attend. This, we understand, is a very good representation.

Before the annual meeting of the Alumni Association there was sufficient time for us to stroll about and see the marvelous things that had been done for St. Paul’s in the past twenty-five years. Of special note were the new buildings, the Quadrangle that has been finished near the Old Upper, and the new dining hall, by the bridge adjoining the new dormitories. At noon the annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held in the Community House. This was opened by prayer by Dr. Drury, followed by the reports of the officers and chairmen of committees. The 1904 Form was pleased to present to the Alumni Association $11,000.00, which sum is to be made available for the Rector for emergency medical treatment. The purpose of this fund is to give to the Rector opportunity to provide the best possible medical advice and equipment for boys in the School who are not otherwise financially able to obtain it.

John M. Goetchius, '90, announced that the War Memorial Committee had completed its task and requested that the Committee be discharged. This was done with an appropriate resolution of thanks and appreciation for not only the splendid work that this Committee had done, but for the beautiful memorial that has been erected. After the meeting a delicious luncheon was served in the Community House where it was possible to meet many of the old masters.

At three o'clock the boat races were held on Long Pond, where the boys were forced to face a heavy head wind rowing up the Pond. Fortunately, however, the day was fair and the setting as thrilling as ever. The crews arrived in their blue and red blazers drawn in by the customary barges. No matter how popular the motor becomes may it be hoped that this tradition will never be abandoned.

It looked like a Halcyon day and they quickly won six out of the first seven races. The second Shattuck crew, shortly after the start, shipped several seas and was never able to catch up with the Halcyon crew. It was feared before the finish that they might founder. They gallantly rode through to the finish, however, without any mishap.

Then came the big race! Never has your reporter been so thrilled or excited over a boat race. Naturally he was a Shattuck. The sentiment seemed to be that the Halcyon first crew would surely win and that the Shattucks would not have a chance. This was to be disproved. When about half-way down Long Pond those equipped with glasses announced that the Shattucks were ahead. This seemed unbelievable. However, as they approached Shattuck Point it was clearly seen that they had about three-quarters of a length lead and this they maintained over the finish line, amid lusty yells from the Shattucks. This closed a thrilling day on Long Pond, which has no equal in display of spirit or tradition in any school in these United States.

After the races we awaited the return of the crews at the Flag Pole and as they came down the old road, standing in their barges and singing their boating songs, memories that will never be forgotten were revived. Captain Morgan, tying the oar to the halyard, did not forget to put the green fish, which had been attached to the bow of the shell of the winning crew, on the halyard as well. This was hoisted to the top amid cheers of the Shattucks.

In the evening the Sixth Form Dance was held. We who were twenty-five years older did not attend, but dined at the Snowshoe Club where preparations had been made by Ed. Toland. It was here that we reminisced until we fell in the evening.

On Wednesday, Hargate, the new dining hall, was formally opened by the Rector and Mrs. Drury with a reception. This beautiful building, as Dr. Drury stated in his address, is of vital interest to the School and its history. John Hargate, '60, was one of the first boys who ever went to St. Paul's School and he rose from a pupil to master and made that his life's work. The inspiration of this splendid career prompted Henry Chalfant, '85, to give the building as a permanent memorial to this life of devotion and service. The dedication ceremonies were opened with a prayer by the Reverend Godfrey M. Brinley, '83, followed by an address by the Rector.

We then attended Chapel. This appears to be little changed when one stands in the stalls and faces the entrance, but when one approaches the Altar it is wonderful to see how marvelously this addition has blended with the original, so that to the untrained eye it is hardly noticeable that two bays have been added.

At the opening hymn there were many whose emotions were so strong that it was difficult to keep one's self under control. There is nothing that so arouses one's feelings as to hear the old hymns sung by the lusty young voices of four hundred boys. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Reverend Alleyne C. Howell, D.D., of Sewickley, Pa.

Following Chapel Service all adjourned to the Upper School for luncheon. This beautiful hall has received the toning of time and Forms are rapidly having the names of their members engraved on the panels, thus adding to the interest of the room.

A new system of amplifiers had been installed so that it was not only possible to hear the speaker distinctly in any part of the great hall, but also to hear him out of doors. Dr. Drury presided at the luncheon and told us of the many generous gifts that had been made to the School during the year. He also spoke of his hope that some day one-quarter of the School would be made up of boys on Scholarships.
Dr. Drury then introduced David Charles Winebrenner, 3rd, Secretary of State of Maryland, who delivered a most entertaining and witty address. Then came President Angell of Yale, on his first visit to St. Paul’s School. Dr. Drury had announced prior to his speech that there were some one hundred and six St. Paul’s boys at Yale. President Angell spoke in a serious strain, stressing the point that scholarship was being considered too lightly by the modern generation and that it was the indispensable element in the preservation of civilization. Bernon S. Prentice, ’01, President of the Alumni Association, was the final speaker at the luncheon and presented to the School, on behalf of the Alumni, a portrait of Willard Scudder, ’85. Mr. Prentice spoke as follows:

“Dr. Drury, fellow Alumni, and friends of St. Paul’s School: The few words I am going to say are not in the nature of a speech, but the performance of a very pleasant duty.

“Wellington said that the battle of Waterloo was won on the cricket fields of Eton, and at St. Paul’s the splendid spirit of sportsmanship and high ideals, of which we were all so proud in our brothers who lost their lives in the great war, qualities that are carrying on through endless college classes and out into the world, were assimilated at the Lower Grounds and Long Pond.

“In building up these ideals, one of our greatest inspirations has been Willard Scudder, the finest example possible of clean sportsmanship and fair play.

“The Alumni are anxious to perpetuate his influence within the portals of our Alma Mater, and in their name it is my great pleasure and privilege to present his portrait to the School.

“Willard Scudder, may your friendship and sympathetic counsel which has played such a big and important part in the lives of St. Paul’s School boys, continue for many years to come.

“All Halycons and Shattucks hail you as the great Admiral of Long Pond, and the entire School family as its true friend and admirer, a fine sportsman and a cultured gentleman!”

At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Prentice called on Captain Harter, son of Isaac Harter, ’97, of the Halcyon Crew, who unveiled the portrait of Mr. Scudder, so vividly painted in his Halcyon coat by Mrs. Ellen Emmet Rand.

After luncheon photographs of the various Forms were taken and then the Alumni, led by the band, paraded to the Lower Grounds over the new path especially constructed by the Forestry Class. At the games two records were broken—the 220 by Nicholas, son of Harry I. Nicholas, ’01, and the Pole Vault by Thompson. The games were won by the Old Hundreds with 77 points, the Delphians having 55½ points and the Isthmians 31½ points. The Alumni Dash was won by Jefferson Fletcher, ’21, who repeated his feat of 1927. At the close of the games an extremely witty address was delivered by Harry B. Gardner, ’09, which was followed by the presentation of prizes. This was very graciously done by Miss Jane Johnson, of Columbus, Ohio, who presented the Gordon Medal for the best all around athlete to Stevens Thomson Mason Wright, ’29, son of Edward Henry Wright, ’90, as the climax of the day.
We left on the special train after our dinner at the Eagle House, all feeling that we had had a wonderful experience and were better for going.

Leonard Sullivan, ’04.

For the Form of 1904, Frank Whitney, Agent, submitted the following report:

Alumni Association, St. Paul’s School,
Concord, New Hampshire.
Gentlemen:

The Form of 1904 takes pleasure in presenting to the School on this, its 25th Anniversary, the sum of $11,000 for the purpose of establishing what may be termed an Infirmary Emergency Fund. This fund can be used at the discretion of the Rector, either the income or the principal in part, if necessary, to defray the cost of calling in medical advice for any emergency in connection with our Infirmary, such as obtaining consultants, extra nurses and other technical help, or emergency equipment if necessary.

The Form of 1904 is providing this Fund in the hope that it will be found helpful in providing the best possible medical advice and equipment for boys in the School who are not otherwise financially able to obtain it. It is also the hope of the Form that it will not be necessary to dispose of any great portion of the principal, and that this fund may be increased from time to time.

Very truly yours,

Frank Whitney, Form Agent 1904.

June 5th, 1929.

The meeting showed its appreciation of the good work done by this Form, and congratulated its members on their accomplishment.

The next order of business was the report of the President for the year, as follows:

“Pursuant to the By-Laws of the Association, the President begs leave to submit his annual report.

Before proceeding to the business of the meeting, I want to speak of the thought that is uppermost in the minds of us all, the feeling of deep gratitude and heartfelt relief that Dr. Drury is to remain with us.

The past year has been one of great activity among the Alumni. The annual meeting of the Standing Committee was held at the University Club on November 14th. Thirty-two members attended. In the absence of the Chairman of the Standing Committee, W. Fellowes Morgan, '76, and at his request, I am incorporating his report in mine. It was voted at the meeting to have a portrait of Willard Scudder, '85, painted and presented to the School. This work has been eminently executed by Mrs. Ellen Emmet Rand, as I am sure you will all attest after you have seen it tomorrow.

Mr. Scudder was appointed Chief Editor of the School History, which is now in the process of compilation.

The following Executive Committee was appointed: Henry McC. Bangs, Trowbridge Callaway, Samuel W. Morris, Bernon S. Prentice, Chairman; Stuart D. Preston, Carll Tucker and Charles Wheeler.

The regular committees were appointed, a list of them has been printed in the Alumni Horae. It was voted by the Committee to turn over to the general School fund from the Alumni fund, as a gift for 1928, $11,357.40, which together with the amount paid for the portrait of the late William Hamilton Foster, '81, makes a total gift of $15,000. This has been voted by the Trustees to the specific purpose of paying in part for the Flint property.

The usual numbers of the Alumni Horae have been published. I wish to express my keen admiration for the way in which Stuart D. Preston, '02, has so ably filled the position of its head editor.

The two outstanding events of the School year have been the rededication of the enlarged chapel and the dedication of the War Memorial, both gifts of the Alumni to the School.

On December 20th, 1928, under the auspices of the Alumni Association, a hockey game was played in the Madison Square Garden between the School team and the Princeton freshmen, and afterwards a reception was held at the Madison Square Garden Club for Dr. Drury. The proceeds of this game, amounting to $1,500, were turned over to St. Paul's School Summer Camp.

A dinner to the Form Agents was given by Richard M. Hurd, '83, Chairman of the Alumni Fund Committee, at the University Club on February 14th.

A St. Paul's School Easter Service was held in New York at St. James' Church on Sunday, April 14th. Dr. Drury preached.

There were other gatherings of the Alumni in Baltimore, Chicago and Pittsburgh.

The Association, as in the past, has been interested in all activities helpful to the School and we sincerely hope to carry on in our efforts of helping our Alma Mater whenever and wherever possible.

Respectfully submitted,

June 5, 1929. (Signed) BERNON S. PRENTICE.”

The President then introduced the Chairman of the Committee on Nominations, Abbot Treadwell, '81, who submitted the names for officers and members of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year. (These names will be found on the inside of the front cover.)

On motion duly made and seconded, the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the persons nominated by the Nominating Committee. This having been done, they were declared duly elected by the President.

At the request of the President, the Secretary then read the list of members deceased since the last annual meeting—fifty-six names in all. During the reading the assembly all stood at attention.

There being no further business to be brought before the meeting, on motion made and seconded it was voted to adjourn.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Abbot Treadwell,
Secretary and Clerk.
